TIGERS WON SATURDAY, LOST FRIDAY

TIMELY HITTING OF McMEEKIN IN THE SEVENTH, AND RICHBOURG IN THE NINTH WINS GAME.

In an exciting game, filled with thrills from the moment the first ball was pitched till Richbourg singled to left in the ninth with the bases full, Clemson defeated Oglethorpe by a score of 7 to 6, here Saturday. The game was full of "pep", and its outcome was as uncertain as war prices.

Oglethorpe scored three times in the fourth; the Tigers came back with two in fifth. The visitors added two more in the seventh; with two men down, Hope doubled to center; a moment later Wingo brought him home with a long home run to the same place. Things looked bad for the Tigers, but they came back with three runs, in the same inning, and tied the score; Banks was safe on Mason's error; Atkinson got a pass to first; Bankhead singled to short, filling the bases. Jordan flew out on a foul to Hope. James grounded to Wingo, who threw Banks out at home on the force. Then with the bases full and two men down, McMeekin sent a liner through short for two bases, scoring Atkinson and Bankhead, and advancing James to third. A wild pitch by Wingo gave the needed opening, and James came in with the tying run. Oglethorpe scored again in the eighth, and as in the previous case, with two down; with a man on third and one on first, Simril errored a hot grounder, and Reynolds came home. You never can tell in an old ball game, and in the ninth the Tigers turned the scales from defeat to victory. Jordan led off with a hit over short; James repeated the stunt over second. McMeekin flew out on a long one to Pollock. Harris was hit by pitcher, Jordan and James advancing one step. Richbourg gave the needed hit by placing a neat single just over short's head—Jordan and James scoring.

The features were the timely hitting of McMeekin, Richbourg, and Wingo; the sensational and thrilling catches and stops made by Jordan, at short, and Harris, at third; and the ever watchfulness of Banks, at catch.

The game by plays is as follows:

FIRST INNING

Pollock grounded out, Harris to James. Mason walked. Hope was safe on a single over short. Wingo sent the sphere over Jordan's head, but he got it by a fast run. Mason failed to steal third.

Bankhead rolled out, Moore to Reynolds; Jordan repeated. James was safe on Johnson's error. McMeekin singled to left. Harris failed to beat Johnson's throw to first.

SECOND INNING

Nichols was out, Harris to James. Reynolds grounded to Jordan, who threw wild to James; Reynolds going to second. De Jarnette popped to James. Johnson sent the apple to James, who put him out at first.

Richbourg aeriaded out to Pollock. Simril was out Mason to Reynolds. Banks fanned.

THIRD INNING

Moore beat the breeze, Pollock bunted

TIGERS WIN FROM TERRIERS

SCORE 4 TO 3.

BANKHEAD, HARRIS, AND McMEEKIN PLAY GOOD GAME.

FOUR GAMES THIS WEEK.

Did Wofford think they would beat us? We believe they did, and things looked rather bad at first when the Terriers tallied 3 runs in the first inning; but, during our turn at the bat in the second and fourth innings, their lead, over which they were so jubilant, received its fatal blow, and, in the eleventh inning, McMeekin buried their hope of victory, covering it with the sod of defeat.

The game was a long drawn out one and clean cut from beginning to end. Every player on both teams showed a spirit of true sportsmanship.

The outstanding features of the game were the hitting of Bankhead, Harris and McMeekin for the Tigers, and the timely hitting of Carmichael and Wright, together with the alertness of Bailey and Ellerbee, for the Wofford nine.

The scores were made as follows:

Outz, the first man to wield the stick, singled to center. Bozeman sacrificed Outz to second. Vaughn walked, and Ellerbe singled to right, advancing Outz and Vaughn one peg each. The bases were full with only one man out, and Carmichael deliberately hit a clean single to center, scoring Outz and Vaughn. Ellerbe was on third, and Carmichael had advanced to second during the excitement Wright, very fortunately, popped the pill into right field just where a fielder wasn't, and Ellerbe scored, but

JUNIOR COACH.

"Stumpy" Banks, captain-elect of Tigers '19, who coached the Juniors to victory.

COMING SENIOR DANCE.

The Seniors have decided on the 26th as the date for their next dance. All juniors having girls up will be invited. Every senior is determined to make this the greatest hit of any of the dances given by the class of '18. States Finley was elected vice president to fill the vacancy left by Ed Vernon, who is in training to help make the Kaiser a playmate of the Czar.

LYCEUM LAST SATURDAY EVENING.

The Berkley Sextette rendered one of the most popular programs given here this session. Orchestra numbers, readings, songs, instrumental solos and costumed selections made up the entertainment. The program was largely of a patriotic character. The selections given in Red Cross and national costumes were especially well received.

SOPH'S DANCE BRILLIANT SUCCESS

The first dance that has been held since December was staged by the Sophomore Dancing Club last Friday night. Even tho dances have been curtailed nobody had lost their pep. Therefore, on this occasion, efforts were made to make up for lost time and fun, and the general consensus of opinion is that considerable success was attained towards this end.

The gym was simply but artistically decorated with pennants and the allied colors. Each end of the hall held a colored electric disc with the class numerals in them, and crossed between each disc lest we should forget that Uncle Sam is after the Kaiser, were two army rifles. During some of the dreamy waltzes these lights diffused a soft glow over the dancers that made it all the more fascinating, less easier to stop.

Bobbie Webb's orchestra was on the job, and 'tis enough said to say that the music was "right".

The grand march was led by Cadet G. L. Murray with Miss Victoria Earle, and from the first "call to arms" until the wee small hours of the morn joy reigned supreme. The ladies were over in bunches and droves and we "sho did have a time"! The following couples were on the floor: Miss Victoria Earle with G. L. Murray; Miss Rosebud Bailey with Ray Taylor; Miss Maudie May Jessee with E. H. Wilkes; Miss Thelma Osborn with H. I. Gaines; Miss Mae Sanders with L. H. Hiers; Betty Thomas with J. A. Croffut; Mavale Guest with Cadet Halley; May Lachicotte with Louis Lachicotte; Mary Lou Morris with B. A. McCowan; Virginia Gilmer with K. B. Ho'ges; Annie Earle Farmer with R. M. Ray; Janet Whisonant with J. L. Scruggs; Gertrude Taylor with C. S.

EDITORIAL.

To anyone who saw that game Saturday it is unnecessary to say that ROOTING is largely responsible for the Tigers' victory. For a team to come from behind three times and win is no small accomplishment. Oglethorpe had a three-run lead twice and then a one-run lead, but in spite of all this the Tigers won. Why? Because those on the side-lines made them feel that they were expected to win, and that every man was behind them.

No team does any more than it is expected to do. If the rooters on the side-lines are only half-hearted, and don't show by their noise that they are with the team then there will be very little chance of that team doing much. A team is as "peppy" as the ROOTERS make it. If the men on the side-lines do not show the Tiger spirit you can bet your last jif that the team won't show it. The time to show that spirit is not in the ninth inning, or the eighth, or the seventh, but in the FIRST. Get in there from the very beginning and stretch your vocal chords—don't wait until the team gets behind. At Saturday's contest the rooting—until that seventh inning—was a disgrace to Clemson. From then on it would have been an honor to any school, and no team could have responded to it more nobly than did the Tigers. Now, fellows, we have seen what the team will do for us when we back them as they deserve. IT IS UP TO US TO SEE THAT WE GIVE THEM THAT BACKING AND DO IT FROM THE VERY FIRST INNING.

On next Saturday night there is to be a vaudeville show for the benefit of the Red Cross. To judge from the program, printed elsewhere in this issue, it will be well worth seeing. Even if it were not, the cause is a good one and everybody should be out. But as the program is going to have even that spelling-bee backed clean off the map there is no reason why a single cadet should miss it. It is very seldom that we get the opportunity to help a good cause and get, aside from the feeling of duty well done, so great a pleasure out of it at the same time. DON'T MISS IT—YOU CAN EAT YOUR CAKE AND HAVE IT TOO—so to speak.

How like a cobweb hang'st thou o'er his lip,
Each tiny hair immaculate in place,
Shielded from harm when he his soup
doth sip,

The very essence of tonsorial grace!
Yet I must dread the time when thou art grown

All bristly and unkempt and base,
Dipped in all beverages ever known,
The veritable strainer of his face.

Still, as I gaze on thee in anxious thot,
I sometimes wonder, are you there or not?

TIGERS WIN FROM TERRIERS. (Continued From Page One.)

Carmichael was caught at the plate by Banks. This ended Wofford's scoring.

We crossed the plate twice in the second inning. McMeekin hit a long fly to right for a single. Harris placed the pill in deep left for three bases, and McMeekin scored. Simril singled to left, and Harris scored.

In the fourth inning, we tied the score. McMeekin was safe at first on pitcher's error. Harris bunted to the pitched and beat it out. McMeekin was caught off second, and Harris stole second, and then took third on a wild throw. Bankhead singled to center, and Harris scored.

The eleventh inning found the score still a tie, but the Tigers determined to break it, and they did. Richbourg reached the first station on a clean single to left. Jordon sacrificed Richbourg to second. McMeekin hit to left for two bases, and Richbourg scored. Thus the game ended with the score standing 4 to 3 in our favor.

The score by innings follows:

CLEMSON'S REPRESENTATIVE AT GREENWOOD.

JOHN STANLEY WATKINS

Watkins, Clemson's representative in the State Oratorical Contest, which is to be held in Greenwood on the nineteenth of April, is the son of Mrs. E. S. Watkins, of Columbia, S. C. This is his junior year at college, and he holds high rank in all branches of college life. Last year as a member of the Wade Hampton Literary Society he won the Trustees' Medal given annually to the best orator in the college. He has been a member of Clemson's debating team every year since he entered college, and has held a position on "The Chronicle" staff for the last two years.

"Cotton" spoke at the State Contest last year in Rock Hill, and with this experience we feel sure that he will bring back the medal this year.

The following items from the Minutes of the Board of Trustees may be of interest to the cadets.

The resignation of Mr. H. G. Lewis, Assistant Chemist in the Division of Soils, was accepted to take effect on April 3rd, and the resignation of Prof. R. L. Shields, to take effect July 1st.

Prof. C. P. Blackwell was elected Professor of Agronomy to succeed Prof. Hutchinson, whose resignation takes effect July 1st. Prof. Blackwell is a Texan by birth. He graduated first from the Oklahoma A. & M. College, and then after three years of study, obtained his Master's Degree from the University of Wisconsin. He is now at Cornell University, working for his Doctor's degree. Prof. Blackwell holds the position of Agronomist at the University of Texas.

Mr. G. H. Collins of the University of Illinois was elected to the position of Assistant Agronomist to succeed Mr. A. H. Ward, who retired sometime ago to engage in Agricultural Teaching in the schools of Orangeburg county.

Mr. E. B. Elmore, present Assistant Bookkeeper, was promoted to the position of head Bookkeeper made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Carroll, the change to be effective July 1st.

The office for Veterinary work in Columbia was officially designated as the "Clemson College Live Stock Sanitary Office at Columbia."

The President was empowered to end the present session on June 1st, if in his judgment that seemed necessary or desirable, to meet any service required of the College or its students by the Government.

The President was empowered to place the facilities of the College at the disposal of the Government for the training of mechanics and technicians, provided that this work did not interfere with the regular session of the College.

Mr. J. E. Pickett was recommended to the Governor for the position of Magistrate of the Clemson College Corporation, and Mr. S. H. Whitlock was duly appointed the Constable of the Corporation.

The College decided to purchase from Mr. J. E. Lewis thirty-five acres of land adjoining the college property on the south.

The following were elected as a Board of Visitors:

H. T. Morrison—1st District—McClellanville.

D. S. Henderson—2nd District—Aiken.

B. B. Gossett—3rd District—Anderson.

R. A. Cooper—4th District—Laurens.

Arthur Gaston—5th District—Chester.

J. J. Lawton—6th District—Hartsville.

T. G. McLeod—7th District—Bishopville.

The Board heartily approved of the College joining the American University Union in Europe, and made an appropriation for this purpose.

An appropriation was also made for the purchase of a 2-ton truck to do hauling from Calhoun. An appropriation for additional equipment for the Government schools, in case they were established, was also made.

The Executive Committee gave the contract for the uniforms for next session to Wm. C. Rowland of Philadelphia. The uniform will consist of blue cap, blue coat and gray trousers, (light or heavy weight) for dress, and regular army olive drab woolen outfit for general use. This outfit will consist of one O. D. coat, two pairs of O. D. breeches, two woolen shirts, leggings, cap and standard ornaments. On account of the high price of uniform garments the purchase of a military overcoat will be made optional next session. Without the overcoat, the complete uniform, not including shoes, will cost $69.83. The price of the O. D. overcoat is $25.75. The blue coat, gray trousers and cap will cost $24.32, and this amount can be saved if the cadets will take care of these articles in their present outfit.

It was a pleasure for the President to be able to commend to the Board the excellent behaviour of the cadet corps during the session.

W. M. RIGGS, President.

DR. HARE MAKES PATRIOTIC ADDRESS.

Dr. J. J. Hare delivered a patriotic address in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium last Wednesday evening to a large audience of cadets and hill-people. The speaker discussed the causes of the war and the entrance of Great Britain and America into the fight. Great Britain had to enter the fight to defend her national honor. America had to enter the fight for the same cause.

The trend of German thought as given in books by German writers was shown to be one of the prime factors for their uncalled for declaration of hostilities. Her writers have denied God; her writers have enthroned national desire and national prowess and dethroned Christianity in the German mind. We are fighting for the perpetuation of the great principles laid down in the Magna Carta, and other famous English papers, the Declaration of Independence, and the Gettysburg address.

Great Britain and America are the two Anglo-Saxon nations. They are bound to each other by ties of blood. Those ties are closer than ever before. Great Britain is proud of the prowess of her powerful daughter. The United States is proud of the mother country with whom we are fighting as one. France also should receive the praise and undying gratitude of both of the Anglo-Saxon nations.

The principles for which George Washington fought are the grinding points in the treatment of British Colonies today. Some British newspapers say that George Washington is not only the Father of the United States, but the Father of British Democracy also.

The address was greatly enjoyed by the audience. Dr. Hare is a Canadian, and these words from him were well-aimed and excellently delivered. The Corps should be given the pleasure of hearing addresses of a patriotic nature often.

Major Turnbull (on the hike)—"Captain Bostick, if you have your bone along we will start a little crap game."

"Turkey"—"Sorry sir, but I lent them to Maggie Bryant, and he lost them."

Clemson Agricultural College

A young man can make no better investment than in a technical education. Viewed merely as a matter of business, even if he has to borrow the money at interest, he will find that his increased earning capacity perhaps even the first year after graduation will be sufficient to repay the loan. It is a poor business policy to wait to earn the money necessary to pay for an education with an earning capacity only one-half or one-third that of an educated man. Every year of untrained, uneducated labor represents a direct financial loss. Every boy of ability and ambition whose parents are unable to pay for his education, should get some friend to indorse his note at the bank and begin preparation that will make for greater earning capacity and a fuller life. There is no time to lose. The world is looking for men of large ability and is willing to pay for them. Already there is a surplus of the one-horsepower variety.

SOUTH CAROLINA'S SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING AND AGRICULTURE

One of the largest and best equipped Agricultural and Mechanical Colleges in the South. 1,544 acres of land. Value of plant over $1,300,000. Over 120 teachers, officers and assistants. Enrollment of over 800. Every county in South Carolina represented. 13 Degree Courses. 4 Short Courses. 24 Departments of Instruction. New and Modern buildings, equipment and sanitation. Over $100,000 expended in public service.

VALUE OF A TECHNICAL COLLEGE EDUCATION

A college education is no longer a luxury of the rich, but more a necessity of the poor boy whose parents can give him little or nothing to start on. In earning capacity, it represents at the outset a capital of from $15,000 to $30,000, depending upon the energy, character and personality of the possessor, and the capital increases with every year of its efficient use.

There never was a time in the history of the world when expert knowledge was so much in demand, so indispensable to individual success, and so highly compensated. For the untrained await the positions of low wages, long hours and poverty.

Clemson College brings within the reach of every boy in South Carolina the benefits and possibilities of a technical education. The way is provided whereby, if he have the ambition and capacity for knowledge, he need not continue in ignorance. Here, at a cost lower than at any similar institution, can a young man obtain an education that will prepare him for self-sustaining, self-respecting citizenship.
